Nahed Ben Haj M'Hamed

My Name is Nahed Ben Haj and I'm a software engineer. I have got my bachelor degree on september 2020. I have a good ability to learn new tech easily. I have made an interesting web application for managing a pastry with spring boot and Angular. recently I have passed all the Exams in python essential1 and essential2 offered by cisco And I have followed a Django Course on edx and I didn't stop to get every day new things. I hope I can be a member of your team. Regarding C# language I didn't use it before but if you let me a few days I will be ready for any quiz or test you will suggest.
